Digital File Agreement

Royal British Columbia Museum Corporation agrees to provide the Applicant with digital file copies of images from the electronic databases of the British Columbia Archives or from the Royal British Columbia Museum.

These files will be provided according to the following terms:

The Royal British Columbia Museum Corporation retains all rights to the supplied files. The Applicant agrees that neither the downloaded files nor any copies, either physical or electronic, will be sold, distributed, shared, loaned, exchanged, traded, transferred, transmitted, rented, leased, deposited or given to any other individual, company or organization, for any reason what-so-ever. Any copies created by the Applicant, either physical or electronic, must be destroyed at the conclusion of the project.

The Applicant understands that acquiring these files is for the use as per the Applicant's signed Permissions Form and will not be used for any other project without permission.

The undersigned agree to the conditions of this agreement as stated herein.
